

A National Human Resources Plan for Health

2006

health

Department:
Health
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

A National Human Resource Plan for Health

Department of Health
P/B X828
Pretoria
0001

Tel: 012 312 0000

Website: www.health.gov.za

An Accessible, Caring and High Quality Health System

Table of Contents

Foreword by Minister of Health	iii
Introductions by Director General	iv
Acknowledgements	v
Abbreviations	vi
Concepts and Definitions	vii
Executive Summary	viii

Chapter 1:

Human Resources for Health: A Strategic Plan

1.1	Introduction	2
1.2	Purpose	2
1.3	Process and Approach	2
1.3.1	Points of Departure	2
1.3.2	Consultations	3
1.3.3	Key Issues Addressed in the Plan	4

Chapter 2:

Human Resources in the South African Health Care System: A Rapid Appraisal

2.1	Introduction	8
2.2	The Context of HR for Health in South Africa	8
2.2.1	Structural Organisation of the SA Health System	8
2.2.2	Population Demographics and HR Specific Statistics	8
2.2.3	Policies/Legislation Addressing Health Systems Development	9
2.2.4	Policies/Legislation Addressing Human Resource Development	11
2.2.5	Policies/Legislation Addressing Health Service Delivery	12
2.3	A Review of Achievements and Trends	14
2.3.1	HR Related Achievements Post 1994	14
2.3.2	Health Care Financing and Expenditure	14
2.4	Summary of Trends Impacting on Human Resources for Health	15

Chapter 3:

Current Issues for National Debate

3.1	Current Issues for National Debate	18
3.1.1	Existing Skills Mix and Key Competencies	18
3.1.2	Distribution of Staff	18
3.1.3	A Discussion of Norms and Standards	19
3.2	Education, Training and Skills Development for HRH Personnel	20
3.2.1	Production of Health Professionals	20
3.2.2	Introduction of New Health Worker Cadres	24
3.3	Management of Training, Formal Education, Staff Development and the Role of Private Providers	25
3.3.1	Nursing Schools	25
3.3.2	Colleges of Nursing	26
3.3.3	Universities and Universities of Technology	26
3.4	HRH Management	26
3.5	Migration of Key Health Professionals	27
3.6	HRH Information Systems	28
3.7	Summary of Outstanding HR Business	28
3.7.1	New Health Worker Cadres	28
3.7.2	Norms and Standards/Staffing Establishments	29
3.7.3	Staffing Workloads	29
3.7.4	Continuing Professional Development	29
3.7.5	Availability and Distribution	30
3.7.6	Skills Development	30
3.7.7	Introduction and Placement of Community Care Givers in the Health System	30
3.7.8	Funding of Health Education and Training	30

3.7.9	Strengthening the Interface Between Departments of Health and Education	30
3.7.10	Repositioning Academic Health Complexes	31
3.7.11	Strengthening Nursing Services	31
3.7.12	Special Allowances for Retention of Health Professionals	31
3.7.13	Organisational Structures and Functionality for Managing HRH	31
3.7.14	Career Progression of Key Cadres	31
3.7.15	Impact Assessment of HRH Planning	31
3.7.16	Integration of the Allied Health Professions	31
3.7.17	Determining the Critical Skills for the Health System	32

Chapter 4:

National Agenda on Human Resource for Health

4.1	The Stewardship Role of Government Regarding Healthcare	34
4.2	Major Pillars of the National Human Resource Plan for Health	36
4.2.1	Human Resource Policy and Planning	36
4.2.2	Human Resource Production	36
4.2.3	HRH Management/Leadership (Capacity Development)	36
4.2.4	HR Information System	37
4.2.5	HRH Research	37
4.2.6	Monitoring and Evaluation	37
4.3	Operational Aspects of the Pillars of the Health System	37
4.3.1	Guiding Principles: An Introductory Framework	37
4.3.2	Guiding Principles: A Detailed Framework	39

Chapter 5:

Priority Areas for Implementation

5.1	Human Resource Production	58
5.1.1	Target for Human Resources for Health Production	58
5.1.2	Funding of Health Sciences Education and Training	62
5.1.3	Training of Specialists	63
5.1.4	Health Sciences Academic Development	64
5.1.5	Nursing Strategy for South Africa	65
5.2	Human Resource Development	65
5.3	Human Resources Management	66
5.4	Implementation of the HRH Plan	67

Conclusion

71

List of Tables

Table 1:	Population by Province: 2001 (Compared to nurses, medical practitioners and pharmacists in the public health facilities, March 2005)	9
Table 2:	Summary of trends impacting on HRH	15
Table 3:	Growth in the South African Nursing Council Register and Roll of Nurses for period 1998 - 2003	21
Table 4:	University production of Nurses: 1998 - 2003	21
Table 5:	Admissions, selected Health Professional Categories 1994 - 2004	22
Table 6:	Output: Selected Health Professional Categories 1994 - 2004	22
Table 7:	Admissions to medical schools 1994 - 2005	23
Table 8:	Outputs to medical schools 1994 - 2005	23
Table 9:	South African -born workers in selected overseas countries	27
Table 11:	Duration and location of training/targets for Human Resources for Health Production	59

List of Figures

Fig 1	Strategic alignment of the consultation process	3
Fig 2	Macro organisation of the National Health System	8
Fig 3	Real per Capita claims cost changes in medical schemes from 1988 to 2001	15
Fig 4	Major pillars of the plan	36
Fig 5	Division of government budget between grant categories: 2004/05 to 2006/07	63