

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The Malaria Treatment Guidelines were developed by the National Department of Health in collaboration with several other stakeholders and malaria experts. These guidelines have been compiled utilising available information. Without the contribution of all persons mentioned below, these guidelines would not have become a reality.

I would therefore like to express my sincere gratitude to the Sub-Committee for Chemoprophylaxis and Therapy (SCAT) of the National Malaria Advisory Group (MAG) who were responsible for the drafting of these guidelines. The SCAT members responsible for the compilation of the guidelines include:

Dr Lucille Blumberg, Department of Microbiology and Infectious Diseases, University of the Witwatersrand and the National Health Laboratory Services; Dr Karen Barnes, Department of Pharmacology, University of Cape Town; Dr Frank Hansford, Department of Health (Chairperson); Dr Cornelia Duvenhage, Department of Internal Medicine, 1 Military Hospital; Mrs Lee Baker, medicines information consultant, Phamnet Amayeza Information Centre; Dr Hervey Vaughan Williams, Mosvold Hospital, KwaZulu-Natal; Professor David Durrheim, James Cook University, Australia (previously of the Mpumalanga Department of Health); Dr Stefano Fieremans, consultant physician at Themba Hospital contributed to the section on severe malaria. Ms Annoesjka Swart of the Medicines Information Centre, University of Cape Town contributed to the extensive literature survey.

I would also like to thank the National Department of Health officials responsible for the compilation of these guidelines. These officials include: Mr Devanand Moonasar, Ms Caron Johnson and Dr Uma Nagpal.

Furthermore, I would like to express my gratitude to those persons who reviewed the guidelines:

Prof. Gary Maartens, Department of Medicine, University of Cape Town; Dr John Freaan, Department of Microbiology and Infectious Diseases, University of the Witwatersrand and the National Health Laboratory Services; and Dr Jan van den Ende, Drs Du Buisson and Bruinette, Kramer Inc. (Chairperson of the MAG). c/o Ampath, P.O. Box 5325, Kempton Park 1620
